EUGENE PERRY AND MAGGIE LINDSAY BROWN

Eugene P. Brown was born 16 October 1877 to Leverett Wesley and Rachel Naegli Brown. He married Maggie Lindsay 18 July 1907. She was the daughter of James and Agnes Watson Lindsay.

Eugene came to Heber as a young man, working for John Austin as a sheep herder. He met and married Maggie Lindsay. He and his brother-in-law, Fredrick Crook, bought a herd of sheep and he cared for them till his retirement in 1942.

Maggie Brown was an industrious woman. She was a faithful visitor to folks who were unable to leave their home. Her hands were always busy. She was a dependable member of the 3rd Ward Relief Society quilting group. She died June 1, 1960.

Eugene and Maggie were the parents of seven children, four are living: Ralph, Agnes (Mrs. Orvil Smith), Leah (Mrs. Monty Montgomery), Clarence.

Bert died for his country in Italy in World War II.

HOW

William J. Clegg died September 15, 1927. Jacobine Clegg died October 18, 1933.

Jacobina Osborne Wells Murdock Clegg was born Nov. 7, 1860, in a dugout in the northeast corner of the Pioneer Fort in Heber, then upper Provo Valley. She started school in the one-room rock schoolhouse, with Abbie Reynolds as her first school teacher. Her youthful days were spent on a ranch 10 miles north of Heber, where her father, Patriarch John M. Murdock, and his wife, Ann Steele, pioneers of 1852, had moved. Her father had charge of the co-operative sheep herd owned by the community. She married William Jonathan Clegg December 2, 1880, in the Endowment House in Salt Lake City.

Father was born in Springville, Utah, May 6, 1859. When he was 13 he moved with his parents, Bishop Henry and Ann Lewis Clegg, to Heber Valley. Father worked in the Clegg shingle mill and hauled timber to the mines in Park City. He built two homes in Heber. The first was at 511 South Main Street. It was he who planted that beautiful pine tree that stands there now. His second home was at 516 6th South in southeast Heber. In November, 1889, he sold his farm and moved his growing family to Vineyard, Utah, where he purchased a large farm and again built a fine home with lovely surroundings.

My parents were highly respected citizens and an industrious couple, who took part in all Church and community projects. Ten of their 15 children are still living. They are: William P., John Wallace, Lewis, Joy Osborne, Joseph Heber Clegg, Bina Clegg, Jannette C. Dalley, Malicent C. Wells, Ellinora C. Harding, and Verona C. Winters.

They had 184 descendants, who honored and cherished their memory, who were indeed native pioneers of Wasatch Valley.
